The Czech Republic lies in the heart of Europe. It is a cradle of brewery, which has its roots and long tradition here.

Thanks to its location, the Czech Republic has ideal conditions for hops growing, which gives beer its flavor and support the quality of beer.

The Czech Republic is with 140 liters of beer per person number one in the world in beer consumption. This is also a result of many foreign tourists, who visit the Czech Rep. not only for its beauty but also for an unique beer culture. The Pilsen type beer is famous around the world. In recent years, microbreweries are becoming more and more popular. Every restaurant owner is able to create and produce own beer under own brand and offer it to its customers. It also allows the owner to react quickly to actual trend and change in demand.

Even though the number of microbreweries in the Czech Rep. increases rapidly, they do not compete with each other. They rather complement the supply on the market with individual beer and approach.

Beer brewed in microbrewery differs from a standard beer. It is unfiltered and unpasteurized.

Thanks to that, this life beer contains more vitamins, minerals and nutrients, which positively affect your health.

As a result you get an excellent beer with unmistakable taste and at the same time get to create your own recipes, complementing the basic type and brand of beer Czech Crown.

Microbrewery CON-BEER® COMPACT allows to brew all types of beer. You are not limited to only one type. You can also brew specials which are suitable for seasonal demand. For example: Christmas - spiced beer, Easter - green beer. Whether the specials become popular throughout the year depends only on you. If you don't brew it, you will never know.

The basic equipment of every Czech Crown restaurant is the microbrewery CON-BEER® COMPACT with a 10 HL, or 5 HL brewhouse and 4 CC tanks for fermentation and ageing. We will recommend the appropriate size to you based on your monthly sales of beer. The output can be increased in the future with maintaining the current technology, by only adding CC tanks.

We will place the microbrewery as a visual part of the restaurant interior according to your current layout or recommend a new architectural design.

A microbrewery with your own original types of beer in your restaurant will become the reason that your customers will be happy to come back and enjoy a specific taste and quality of your own Czech life beer.
